

Woodfield Primary School & Nursery

Do you have time to support our school?

Have you considered becoming a local Governor?

What are we looking for?

- Someone who has a small amount of time and a desire to give back to a local school
- A friendly face, who is willing to engage with children, parents and staff at our school
- Someone who is keen to learn more about current education policies and practices
- Someone who can listen and ask questions to support and encourage best practice
- Someone who may have skills or experience from their previous or current job role, but bring a willingness to learn about education

What we can offer you?

- A warm and welcoming school which is open to change and improvement
- A school that has consistently been judged as 'Good' by Ofsted
- The opportunity to feel part of a community and use your skills within our school which strives to make lives better for the children and families
- Working alongside a school within a growing Plymouth Academy Trust
- Full training for the role is available, to help you to understand how you can best support and challenge the school

Local Governors meetings are held six times a year from approximately 2 hours. In addition, there are opportunities to visit the school and attend celebrations and events.

Some employers will enable you time within your working hours to engage in community work like this.
